Conference and Events

Welcome to West County Hotel, one of Dublin's easiest accessible hotels. Situated in Chapelizod, West County Hotel offers flexible and spacious meeting and conference facilities right on the doorstep of Dublin City Centre. Our brilliant location and customer support make the hotel the ideal choice of venue for a wide range of events, from boardroom & breakfast meetings, training courses, seminars, workshops and AGMs to exhibitions and large-scale conferences.

Our dedicated Conference and Events team aim to make you stand out from the crowd and help host a successful and memorable event for you and your guests and delegates. Our goal is not to play host to a standard event; achieving typical goals is just not enough. Our aim is to surpass all expectations and ensure your event is a success both financially and socially.

Behind each conference and event hosted at the hotel is our experienced team of committed personnel, offering a dedicated focus to provide you the comfort and professionalism that you require.

Each of our unique conference and banqueting suites offer the latest technology, coupled with unobtrusive service, and create an elegant and beautiful environment for events catering from 1-200 delegates.

Bar and Restaurant

When it comes to dining, there is something for everyone at West County Hotel Dublin.

The Pine Restaurant mixes chic décor with a grand elegance and tops it off with delicious food to create that perfect evening meal in Dublin. The hotel is passionate about providing tasty and unique dishes, whilst maintaining a perfect variety for guests of all tastes and palates. There is a heavy bias on sourcing local ingredients to ensure freshness and quality and the menus are a mix of classic Irish and European dishes.

A full wine list provides wine lovers with a large selection of wines from all over the world, with some fine wines from Chile, France, South Africa and Australia to name a few. Champagnes and sparkling wines are especially reserved for the celebration of a family get together or special occasion.

Dublin is known for its Bars and Pubs, and The Liffey Bar lives up to the high reputation. A fully stocked bar, guests can enjoy the perfectly poured pint of the “Black Stuff” or chill over a glass of fine wine. The Liffey Bar offers a cosy and informal atmosphere and is the ideal venue for chilling after a long day of catching the sights and attractions of Dublin City.

Throughout the afternoon until late in the evening, The Liffey Bar serves its popular bar menu, stuffed with a vast range of snacks and international dishes and ideal for any level of peckish or hunger.
